Seven ways to turn your hotel room into a private den of desire.

one Dim the lights and set a romantic mood with scented candles.

two Tune out the world with your favorite CD or iPod mix.

three Soak in the suds together while sipping red wine or bubbly.

four Feed each other your favorite foods in bed (yes, whipped cream counts, too).

five Splurge on room service anytime of day. Champagne breakfast, anyone?

six Book an en suite couples massage. Or better yet, give each other a rubdown using a luxurious lotion or oil.

seven Hide fun gifts for your sweetie around the room, like a surprise spa gift certificate or tickets to an event happening nearby during your getaway.
