Travel agents provide expertise, special vacation packages and an "in" to the best deals in the travel industry. Whether it's a honeymoon to the tropics, a cruise, or a week in Paris, nothing equals the experience of a professional travel agent who specializes in romantic travel. To find the best travel agent for you, check with friends and family for recommendations to find one that's reputable and reliable. Referrals are often the best way to find the best in the business.

- Book your honeymoon travel reservations as far in advance as possible from a travel agent.
- Booking your ticket directly with the airline or carrier does not necessarily ensure the lowest rate possible.
- When talking to your travel agent, ask for package deals and honeymoon upgrades.
- BeverlyClarkTravel.com is the premiere agency specializing in romantic travel and will find the perfect deal for your honeymoon or destination wedding.
